

O Antiphons

O Antiphons, five names of Jesus, are celebrated leading up to Christmas: 17–23rd December. You may wish to use them as a daily reflection and tape/hang on your windows or tree as powerful signs of hope and light to all who see them.

You may wish to write a prayer of your own on the back, or the name of a loved one who can not be with you this year.

Created by Katie Anne from her blog "Look to Him and be Radiant" Colours by Debbie at St Wilfrid's, Garston