Can I just say....

As we come to do some rejoicing today, on this Gaudete Sunday, our Advent purple turned to rose to encourage us that we're about half way there on our journey through this season of watching and waiting, our guide once again is Saint John the Baptist. People wondered about the identity of this John the Baptist whom we encounter in the Gospel again. So good did he seem to be that people thought that he was the Christ. There was no crisis of identity on John's part, though. He knew who he was and most importantly he knew who it was for whose coming he had to prepare the way. He knew that the one coming after him was even greater. It's for the coming of the same one, the same Christ that we have to prepare the way ourselves this Advent, and all the while rejoicing, as we hear today.

And yet it can be hard to do all of this preparing, all of this smoothing and straightening of the rough and crooked ways, all joyfully. The message can be hard. How hard was it for John the Baptist's audience to receive his message calling for fairness and gentleness in the dealings between an occupying force and the oppressed, occupied nation of Israel? Elsewhere we'll hear that King Herod, perhaps the one who came in for the greatest amount of criticism from the prophet John the Baptist, even he liked to listen to John. However hard it is for us to hear the Advent message, we too have to do the same. We have to listen to John telling us to prepare the way and listen to him with joy in our hearts as well.

But listening can be hard in this noisy world in which we live. In order that John the Baptist could do what he did, he had to go off to school. His school was the desert, the wilderness. This desert experience was what allowed him really to listen to what the Lord God was saying so that he could be his messenger. He came back into the noisy world, the world filled with the noise of squabbles, intimidation and exploitation and said, "listen! Come and see what's really important here. Come and see from where salvation will really come." We could do with our own desert experience this Advent. Those who go off on retreat at whatever time of the year find this, but we might all give ourselves something of an opportunity to do the listening we need just in giving ourselves five minutes of silence, five minutes of seeing what's really important, before returning once again, as we must, to the world of noise. Perhaps it's only then we could return with the joy in our hearts we're called to share on this Gaudete Sunday.

Fr. Joe

We pray for Reeva Ivy Morton and Enzo Alexander Abraham who are being Baptised in our Parish this weekend.

Please keep them and their families in your prayers.

St Francis of Assisi Church

Updated guidance on the use of our church building in light of the changes from Monday, 19th July 2021

Due to the fact that the pandemic is far from over, the Bishops' Conference of England & Wales do not intend to restore an obligation to attend Sunday Mass at this point. However, they wish to remind us all of the importance of keeping Sunday holy and if possible attending Mass weekly.

After the legal changes to Covid regulations come in to force on Monday, July 19th July, the following is what will be required in the churches of the Archdiocese of Liverpool.

Face coverings will remain mandatory for all those coming to a church service. (Exemptions for medical reasons excluded.)

Social distancing will not be mandatory in our churches and the practice of sanitising the benches after use may be discontinued.

Hand sanitising will remain necessary as people arrive and the sanitiser will remain available for use on the way out. There will, however, be a section of the benches reserved for those who would feel safer and less vulnerable by maintaining social distancing in church. Benches reserved for this purpose will give a limited number of spaces for those who wish to continue social distancing. If you do not require a socially-distanced place in a bench, you will no longer have to book your place at Mass as previously required. Only if you would like one of the spaces in a bench reserved for social distancing will you be asked to contact the office in the same way as everyone has been doing previously. If you would like to reserve a socially-distanced place or places, please contact the parish office, preferably by email, to let us know which Mass you would like to attend and how many in your household wish to come. For Masses Monday - Friday, please contact us at least 2 days before the Mass you wish to attend. For all Masses on Saturday and Sunday, please contact us by 6pm on Wednesday. A socially-distanced place cannot be guaranteed for those who have not booked that place in the way outlined above.

Congregational singing will also be permitted from Monday, 19th July, and will be reintroduced at Mass in our church over time, but please remember the need to keep your face covering on at all times, except when speaking from a microphone or receiving Holy Communion. The reception of Holy Communion will be transferred to its usual place during Mass but stewards will continue to guide people out of their benches. Mass will then also finish in the more usual way.

We must be grateful to all the stewards for their hard work over a long period of time. Their work will now continue but in different ways as they help us to keep our church a safe place to visit and use. New volunteers to help steward will always be welcome and will greatly help our current team, so please think about offering your help in that way. We can, though, all help and play our part to keep our church safe, especially by continuing to keep our face coverings on.

Only book your place early if you require a socially-distanced place.

If you book and cannot attend, please let the office know A.S.A.P. so others can be accommodated.

These places will be limited and cannot be guaranteed for those who turn up without booking.

Email the parish office detailing which Mass you wish to attend and how many people will be present with you.

Wear a face covering in church at all times. If you do not require a socially-distanced place you no longer need to book but may simply arrive at church to attend Mass.

Thank you for your wonderful generosity.

Your continued financial support and food donations are truly appreciated. As a result, we have been able to support many people in time of crisis.

During Advent, we ask once again for your generosity in helping to provide Christmas hampers for families experiencing hardship. A box has been placed at the back of church to receive donations of food and drink.

Thank you in advance
