Can I just say....

Standing out from the crowd, becoming the centre of attention for all to see is not something that many people can say they enjoy and is for many something to be avoided at all costs. However, we see two people in our readings today who don't seem to show any nervousness, about standing in front of a crowd to speak. The Book of Nehemiah tells us about old Ezra who seems to be both a priest and a scribe. He's got his work cut out addressing a people who've been hurt so very much as a result of wars and deportations from their homeland and need a fresh start. The people of Israel are making a new start back in the Holy Land and people like Ezra want it to be the best start. They need to see that their identity and stability will be found in the Law of God, the Torah. Saint Augustine would tell us much later that our hearts do not find rest until they rest in the Lord. That is to say that our hearts are restless until they find stability and identity in the Lord, and for the people that Ezra addresses the presence of that Lord really is in the Law, in the Word that he speaks to the people.

At Mass the Lord is present to us in his Word, just as he's present to us in his body and blood. Saint Paul will also remind us of the other way in which we encounter Christ's presence. Being the Body of Christ, the Church, Christ is made manifest in the congregation who gather to praise, and give glory to, that same Christ whose body they become by the celebration of this Eucharist, by the Holy Communion that they receive. They are many and different, all vital and valued, and maybe the weakest even more so, and yet all can still be one.

Understanding how transformed we are by the celebration of the Eucharist ought to be as astounding for us as the words of Jesus seem to be for his fellow Nazarenes who hear him speak in the Synagogue. He too, like Ezra, is making a new start, a start in his ministry of preaching and healing. He's the other one with Ezra who doesn't seem to be embarrassed speaking in front of a big crowd, and his home crowd at that. The transformation of this people he points to, quoting the prophet Isaiah, must be the same sort of transformation that we come to understand in ourselves as coming from our celebration of the Eucharist, remembering too that by our Baptism we are made priest, prophet and king, after the likeness of Christ Jesus himself. With that transformation in the Eucharist we are then sent out into the world to tell Christ's Good News.

Fr. Joe

St Francis of Assisi Church

Updated guidance on the use of our church building in light of the changes from Monday, 19th July 2021

Due to the fact that the pandemic is far from over, the Bishops' Conference of England & Wales do not intend to restore an obligation to attend Sunday Mass at this point. However, they wish to remind us all of the importance of keeping Sunday holy and if possible attending Mass weekly.

After the legal changes to Covid regulations come in to force on Monday, July 19th July, the following is what will be required in the churches of the Archdiocese of Liverpool.

Face coverings will remain mandatory for all those coming to a church service. (Exemptions for medical reasons excluded.)

Social distancing will not be mandatory in our churches and the practice of sanitising the benches after use may be discontinued.

Hand sanitising will remain necessary as people arrive and the sanitiser will remain available for use on the way out.

There will, however, be a section of the benches reserved for those who would feel safer and less vulnerable by maintaining social distancing in church. Benches reserved for this purpose will give a limited number of spaces for those who wish to continue social distancing. If you do not require a socially-distanced place in a bench, you will no longer have to book your place at Mass as previously required. Only if you would like one of the spaces in a bench reserved for social distancing will you be asked to contact the office in the same way as everyone has been doing previously. If you would like to reserve a socially-distanced place or places, please contact the parish office, preferably by email, to let us know which Mass you would like to attend and how many in your household wish to come. For Masses Monday - Friday, please contact us at least 2 days before the Mass you wish to attend. For all Masses on Saturday and Sunday, please contact us by 6pm on Wednesday. A socially-distanced place cannot be guaranteed for those who have not booked that place in the way outlined above.

Congregational singing will also be permitted from Monday, 19th July, and will be reintroduced at Mass in our church over time, but please remember the need to keep your face covering on at all times, except when speaking from a microphone or receiving Holy Communion. The reception of Holy Communion will be transferred to its usual place during Mass but stewards will continue to guide people out of their benches. Mass will then also finish in the more usual way.

We must be grateful to all the stewards for their hard work over a long period of time. Their work will now continue but in different ways as they help us to keep our church a safe place to visit and use. New volunteers to help steward will always be welcome and will greatly help our current team, so please think about offering your help in that way. We can, though, all help and play our part to keep our church safe, especially by continuing to keep our face coverings on.

Only book your place early if you require a socially-distanced place.

If you book and cannot attend, please let the office know A.S.A.P. so others can be accommodated.

These places will be limited and cannot be guaranteed for those who turn up without booking.

Email the parish office detailing which Mass you wish to attend and how many people will be present with you.

Wear a face covering in church at all times. If you do not require a socially-distanced place you no longer need to book but may simply arrive at church to attend Mass.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Following the latest guidance received recently from the government and the archbishop, there will be no limit to the number of people able to attend a celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism after 19th July 2021. This is subject to the government moving the country to that step on the roadmap out of lockdown by that date.

Parents who have completed the Baptism preparation course and need to rearrange a date for their child's baptism should contact the parish office to do that. Parents who have not completed a Baptism preparation course, after which a date for baptism may be arranged,
