Can I just say....

At a time of year when many might be turning their thoughts to journeys they'll make, places they'll go to in order to get away, and all after a period when such things, once taken for granted, were denied to us, let's not forget that in this point of Saint Luke's recording the Gospel we see Jesus continuing his journey to Jerusalem. But then he was still met by people along the way and today we hear of him being confronted by a scholar of the law who wants to test him. Some might say this was a dirty old trick. Some might just say, "Typical lawyer." But in thinking about this Law that we're dealing with here, maybe we should remember what we learn about it in our first reading from the Book of Deuteronomy. This Law is not beyond the grasp of human beings. It's not some distant, heavenly thing or something to be grasped in the depths of the ocean. It's something very near and should be on the mouths of all.

Here, in Luke's Gospel, in contrast to how Saint Matthew and Saint Mark record this incident, the lawyer asks what we must do to inherit eternal life. If you call this man 'a typical lawyer' then you have to say that Jesus is a good rabbi, answering this question with another question, "What is written in the law?" The man's a bit stumped and responds with another bit of Deuteronomy, from the sixth chapter. This verse is one of the most important prayers in Judaism, and it was said twice a day by faithful Jews in Jesus' time. Love of God and love of neighbour are what is required for eternal life. Jesus' response is simple, "Do this and you will live." Having been shown up by Jesus, the lawyer tries another question: who is my neighbour whom I must love like myself? In the society of Jesus' time, with its distinctions between Jews and Gentiles, men and women, clean and unclean, (maybe it's just the labels that change; distinctions still abound) this was a trick question. Jesus responds with one of the most beautiful of all the parables, the Good Samaritan, only to be found in Saint Luke's Gospel.

A neighbour is a person who acts with compassion towards another. This can, of course, be applied on the global scale, informing our collective response to the injustices of the world, but really we have to remember this: if I say that things must change it means that I must change. The point becomes not who deserves to be loved as I love myself, but that I become a person who treats others with compassion. Let's pray that we each have the courage to respond, do the right thing and, most importantly, be the saints we're called to be.

Fr. Joe

We pray for Isla Grace Deevey, Ava Amelia Deevey and also, William Doyle who are being Baptised in our Parish this weekend.

Updated guidance on the use of our church building in light of the changes from Thursday, 27th January 2022

Due to the fact that the pandemic is far from over, the Bishops' Conference of England & Wales do not intend to restore an obligation to attend Sunday Mass at this point. However, they wish to remind us all of the importance of keeping Sunday holy and if possible attending Mass weekly.

After the legal changes to Covid regulations come in to force on Thursday, 22nd January, the following is what will be required in the churches of the Archdiocese of Liverpool.

Face coverings are recommended to be worn by those who are present in a church building. (Exemptions for medical reasons excluded.)

Social distancing will not be mandatory in our churches.

Hand sanitising will remain necessary as people arrive and the sanitiser will remain available for use on the way out.

There will, however, be a section of the benches reserved for those who would feel safer and less vulnerable by maintaining social distancing in church. Benches reserved for this purpose will give a limited number of spaces for those who wish to continue social distancing. Only if you would like one of the spaces in a bench reserved for social distancing will you be asked to contact the office. If you would like to reserve a socially-distanced place or places, please contact the parish office, preferably by email, to let us know which Mass you would like to attend and how many in your household wish to come. For Masses Monday - Friday, please contact us at least 2 days before the Mass you wish to attend. For all Masses on Saturday and Sunday, please contact us by 6pm on Wednesday. A socially-distanced place cannot be guaranteed for those who have not booked that place in the way outlined above.

At Sunday Masses, and other Masses and liturgies that are well attended, stewards will continue to guide people out of their benches to come forward to receive Holy Communion. At Mass during the week, people may come forward to receive Communion without being directed. The sign of peace may now be reintroduced and people may use holy water at the entrance to church to bless themselves as a reminder of their baptism.

We must be grateful to all the stewards for their hard work over a long period of time. Their work will now continue but in different ways as they help us to keep our church a safe place to visit and use. New volunteers to help steward will always be welcome and will greatly help our current team, so please think about offering your help in that way. We can, though, all help and play our part to keep our church safe, especially by continuing to keep our face coverings on.

Only book your place early if you require a socially-distanced place.

If you book and cannot attend, please let the office know A.S.A.P. so others can be accommodated.

These places will be limited and cannot be guaranteed for those who turn up without booking.

Email the parish office detailing which Mass you wish to attend and how many people will be present with you.

It is now optional to wear a face covering in church.

Prayer for Ukraine

Almighty and Great God, accept our gratitude for your boundless mercy towards us. Hear the supplication of our afflicted hearts for the land and people of Ukraine, as they confront foreign aggression and invasion. Open the eyes of those who have been overtaken by a spirit of deception and violence, that they be horrified by their works. Grant victory over the powers of evil that have arisen and bless Ukraine with your gifts of liberty, peace, tranquillity and good fortune.

We implore you, O Merciful God, look with grace upon those who courageously defend their land. Remember the mothers and fathers, the innocent children, widows and orphans, the disabled and helpless, those seeking shelter and refuge, who reach out to you and to their fellow human beings looking for mercy and compassion. Bless the hearts of those who have already shown great generosity and solidarity, and those who prepare to receive their Ukrainian brothers and sisters in Ukraine's greatest time of need. Bring us together as your children, your creation, and instil in us your strength, wisdom and understanding. May you be praised and glorified, now and forever, and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Former St Bernadette's Parishioners may be interested to hear:

Archbishop Malcolm and the Trustees of the Archdiocese have been extremely generous in agreeing to donate the former St Bernadette's Site on Mather Avenue to a Project that will, hopefully, see the building of 11 apartments and communal facilities that will offer a Supported Living facility for 11 residents with learning difficulties and provide a long term housing solution for them. The 11 families have been working on this Project for nearly 8 years and have driven it forward to the stage where a Planning Application is currently being drawn up. A collaborative approach has been used throughout and enormous assistance and enthusiasm has been afforded by Liverpool City Council Adult Social Care, Options Supported Living, Regenda and Care Housing Associations together with the legal and surveying functions within the Archdiocesan Offices.
