THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The business of finding fault is very easy, and that of doing better very difficult.
(St Francis de Sales)

WELCOME

We extend a warm welcome to Penny Louise Sampson, who will be baptized today.

CONDOLENCES

We offer our condolences to the families of Elizabeth Harris and Patrick Johnston, whose funerals will be celebrated on Monday and Wednesday respectively. Likewise to the family of Thomas Ashton, whose requiem took place last Monday. May they all rest in peace and rise in glory.

SUMMER FAYRE

The inaugural St Wilfrid's Parish Summer Fayre will take place today, starting at 12.30 pm. There will be a wide range of stalls, raffles and activities, including a Bouncy Castle, a dance show from the award-winning Bluebell School of Dance, a car wash, and games such as Beat the Goalie and Hook-A-Duck. Music and refreshments will also be provided, and a team of Princesses will be on hand to welcome people, stroll around dispensing good cheer, provide the music and sing some songs. Many thanks to everyone who has helped to prepare the Fayre and / or volunteered to run stalls and activities.

ON THE DAY OF THE SUMMER FAYRE

Please note the following, which will apply today because of the Summer Fayre.

1. The Meeting Room will not be available for Little Church, which will have to meet in the sacristy instead.
2. There will be no tea and coffee in the Meeting Room after the 9.30 am Mass.
3. Most of the stalls will be set up outside, so it would be a great help if parishioners coming to Mass could park in the streets outside the church grounds.
4. No cars may enter the church grounds once the Fayre begins at 12.30 pm, other than vehicles which are being brought for the car wash. The car wash will be accessed via the Palmerston Crescent entrance to the church grounds.

NEXT WEEKEND

Fr John Conroy MHM will be celebrating all three Masses next weekend, 20/21 July. There will also be a second collection for Priests in Retirement after each Mass. Please pray for the members of St Wilfrid's Parish who will be travelling to Lourdes in association with the archdiocesan pilgrimage.
