THANKS

Fr David thanks parishioners for their generous gifts and offerings at Christmas. Your kindness will be remembered at the altar. Thanks also to the altar servers, musicians, florists and other helpers who contributed to our Christmas liturgies and made the church look so beautiful and welcoming.

AMY COLLERAN

One of our regular organists, Dr Amy Colleran, is playing at St Francis of Assisi for the last time this Saturday and Sunday. Amy has just successfully completed her doctorate and has become a member of the Biochemistry Department at Liverpool University, where she is conducting further research. We thank Amy for her fidelity and for all she has given, playing the organ at 6.00 pm on Saturday and at 11.30 on Sunday, and also acting as the cantor at the 11.30 Mass. And we wish her the very best for the future. A successor to Amy has been identified and will begin playing in due course. Our other organist, Dr Matthew Heneghan, remains active in the parish, as does our viola player Mr Nicholas Fennell and the 9.30 choir. All their contributions are greatly appreciated.

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2026

Fr David wishes all parishioners a Happy New Year and abundant blessings in 2026. The season of Christmas continues into the New Year, ending with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on 11 January. Cardinal Basil Hume, who was Archbishop of Westminster from 1976 to 1999, identified one way in which God invites us and calls to us at this sacred time :

Every year at this time we are asked to escape from the tumult of our hearts, to put aside our weighty cares and leave our wearisome toil, to enter for a while into the inner chamber of our souls, to listen to God's Word.

The Word – calling us through the mist of ignorance and apathy to be silent, to listen to the sound of stillness, and to see in the Child born of Mary the Word who became flesh.
